

Maine Pharmacy Association

June 24, 2021 CE Program

OBJECTIVES

COVID-19 Immunization Update: An ounce of prevention is the best medicine: Presented by Dr. Kenneth McCall, PharmD, BCGP, FAPhA | Chair of University Faculty; Assembly Director of Residency Programs Professor | School of Pharmacy Westbrook College of Health Professions UNIVERSITY OF NEW ENGLAND

OBJECTIVES:

- Recognize the rates of COVID-19 infection and the variants that have been identified through surveillance.
- Review the ongoing safety monitoring of the COVID-19 vaccines.
- Discuss vaccine effectiveness including how well the vaccines prevent the spread of the COVID-19 virus and the duration of immunity.
- Discuss the current science regarding when we will achieve population immunity.

2021 Maine Legislative Update in Pharmacy: Presented by Dr. Matt Marston, Pharm.D, MBA, BCPS, BCOP | Vice President- Pharmacy | Northern Light Health

OBJECTIVES:

- Describe key legislative or regulatory changes impacting the practice of pharmacy enacted over the last year
- Identify pending legislation or anticipated regulatory changes with future impact to the practice of pharmacy
- Give examples of how Pharmacists and Technicians can advocate for the pharmacy profession at local, State, and National levels